Indian Police Service (Appointment By Promotion) Regulations, 1955

In pursuance of sub-rule (1) of rule 9 of the Indian Police Service (Recruitment) Rules, 1954, the Central Government, in consultation with the State Governments and the Union Public Service Commission, hereby makes the following regulations namely:—

1. Short title:—These regulations may be called the Indian Police Service (Appointment by Promotion) Regulations, 1955.

2. Definitions:—

* * * * *

* * * * *

3. Constitution of the Committee to make Selection:—(1) There shall be costitu'ed for each of the States, specified in column 2 of Schedule, a committee consisting of the Chairman of the Commission or where the Chairman is unable to attend, any other member of the Commission representing it and other members specified in the corresponding entry of column 3 of the said Schedule:

Provided that—

(i) no member of the Committee, other than the chairman or the member of the Commission shall be a person who is not a member of the Indian Administrative Service or the Indian Police Service;

(ii) the Central Government may, after consultation with the State Government concerned, amend the Schedule.

(2) The Chairman or the member of the Commission shall preside at all meetings of the Committee at which he is present.

4. Conditions of Eligibility for Promotion:—(1) Each Committee shall meet at intervals ordinarily not exceeding one year and consider the cases of all substantive members of the State Police Service who on the first day of January of that year, had completed not less than eight years of service (whether officiating or substantive) in a post of Deputy Superintendent of Police.

Explanation:—In computing the period of qualifying serivce of eight years, any service rendered in any former Indian State, a part 'B' State or the State of Vindhya Pradeah (as it existed before the coming into force of the Constitution (Seventh Amendment) Act, 1956) in any post which the State Government considers equivalent to that of Deputy Superintendent of Police shall be taken into consideration.

5. Preparation of a list of suitable officers:—(1) The Committee shall prepare a list of such members of the State Police Service as satisfy the condition specified in regulation 4 and as are held by the Committee to be suitable for promotion to the Service.

(2) The selection for inclusion in such list shall be based on merit and suitability in all respects with due regard to seniority.

(3) The names of the officers included in the list shall be arranged in order of seniority in the State Police Service :

Provided that any junior officer who in the opinion of the Committee is of exceptional merit and suitability may be assigned place in the list higher than that of officers senior to him.

(4) The list so prepared shall be reviewed and revised every year.

(5) If in the process of selection, review or revision it is proposed to supersede any member of the State Police Service, the Committee shall record its reasons for the proposed supersession.

6. Consultation with the Commission.—The list prepared in accordance with regulation 5 shall then be forwarded to the Commission by the State Government along with—

(i) the records of all members of the State Police Service included in the list ;

(ii) the records of all members of the State Police Service who are proposed to be superseded by the recommendations made in the list ;

(iii) the reasons as recorded by the Committee for the proposed supersession of any members of the State Police Service ;

(iv) the observations of the State Gevernment on the recommendations of the Committee.

7. Select List.—(1) The Commission shall consider the list prepared by the Committee along with the other documents received form the State Government and unless it considers any change necessary, approve the list.
